Hymns Come ye thankful people Let all the world

Introit: Give peace, O Lord, to those that wait for you, and let your prophets be found faithful: hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel. (Ecclesiasticus 36)

Collect (Prayer for the Day): Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer: We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast: for here we receive you, here the memory of your passion is renewed, here our minds are filled with grace, and here a pledge of future glory is given, when we shall feast at that table where you reign with all your saints for ever. Amen.

Hymns (Evening)

1 Come, ye thankful people, come,
raise the song of harvest home;
all is safely gathered in,
ere the winter storms begin.
God our Maker doth provide for our wants to be supplied;
come to God's own temple, come,
raise the song of harvest home.

2 All the world is God's own field,
fruit as praise to God we yield;
wheat and tares together sown
are to joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade and then the ear,
then the full corn shall appear;
Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
and shall take the harvest home;
from the field shall in that day
all offenses purge away, giving angels charge at last
in the fire the tares to cast;
but the fruitful ears to store
in the garner evermore.

4 Even so, Lord, quickly come,
bring thy final harvest home;
gather thou thy people in,
free from sorrow, free from sin,
there, forever purified,
in thy presence to abide;
come, with all thine angels, come,
raise the glorious harvest home!

1 Let all the world in ev'ry corner sing,
"My God and King!"

The heav'ns are not too high,
God's praise may thither fly;
the earth is not too low,
God's praises there may grow.

Let all the world in ev'ry corner sing,
"My God and King!"

2 Let all the world in ev'ry corner sing,
"My God and King!"

The church with psalms must shout:
no door can keep them out.
But, more than all, the heart must bear the longest part.

Let all the world in ev'ry corner sing,
"My God and King!"

NOTICEBOARD—DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

- Please note from this evening James is on leave until Monday 18th; in case of any urgent matters during this time, please contact the churchwardens. But ideally avoid urgent matters!
- We'll resume serving refreshments after the main Sunday service on Sunday 10th. This means the start of this service will revert back to the old time of 10am. At the moment we can only staff refreshments on the 2nd and 4th Sundays but hopefully we can build back up again soon.
- We expect to resume a fully sung Parish Eucharist by Sunday 24th October, though the Choir will not convene until the evening service on November 7th.
- Our annual Memorial Service is on the afternoon of Sunday 31st and it would be good to serve refreshments to visitors after that service. If you can help, please let James know.
- Our Treasurer David Preston writes: A series of podcasts and reflections with the theme of Generosity Week is available from the national church. Tying-in with Harvest, they look at various aspects of generosity. The podcasts are available from Apple, Google, Spotify and at <https://www.churchofengland.org/resources/building-generous-church/encouraging-generosity/ideas-activating-generosity/generosity-week/generosity-week-podcasts>.
